

WRITE AN ADVICE COLUMN

Imagine that you write an advice column for a newspaper. Make up a letter that a character from this story might send you. Then write your answer to the letter. Point out what the character may be able to learn from his or her experience. If possible, use a word processing program to publish your column.

Due Friday October 10, 2008